MARRIAGE MOMENT-PLAIN OLD I'M SORRY

One of the hardest things in the world for me to do is to apologize without the "but". To be successful, I have to plan it out. I usually have time to plan it out, because it may take a few hours for Angie to be in the spirit to RECEIVE an apology. As bad as I want to say I'm sorry, and then explain, (JUSTIFY), why I did what I did, or said what I said, (yelled may be the better word)... She does NOT want to hear the WHY. She just needs to hear that I am sorry for treating her in that way, for hurting her feelings, for making her feel small or unimportant. Along with The Five Love Languages, Gary Chapman also wrote The Five Languages of Apology. It is worth reading a few times. I have been a little more successful in apologizing to others when I try to figure out what kind of apology they "hear".

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven."
- Matthew 10:32

I would guess that if you were asked who your president, governor, or sheriff is, most would have the correct response. This verse makes it very clear we should have an intentional response when asked who our Savior is. We must be willing to confess before men that Jesus is our everything. We are told that Jesus will confess before God that we belong to Him. This is the difference between Heaven and Hell. If we do not belong to Him, we will not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Romans 10:9-10 tells us that, "because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart, one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved." We confess Him so that we belong to Jesus. He then confesses that we belong to Him before God.

I pray that we are willing to tell all peoples that we belong to Jesus. Who will you confess to today that you belong to Jesus, and He is Lord of your life?

In Christ,
Pastor David
